Dear Mr. Egeth,

What you report is a common complaint. Although all the major wholesalers have the book, the book stores do not seem to know of it.

To save you and me both time and trouble, I'm sending you a copy of WHITEWASH. The price is $5.05, including postage.

We'll be glad to mail you another, should you so desire. Or, to a different address, should that be your preference.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
